

LLA Beach Party Rules and Regulations

The following rules and regulations regarding use of Eaglehead beaches, particularly for parties, are in effect:

- More than ten (10) people constitute a party and no party can exceed more than 30 people. Each lot owner will be allowed 10 guests at the beach without having to register the party. Any party of more than 10 people must be registered with the LLA office seven days in advance.

- Applicants must receive approval and written permission from the LLA general manager prior to the day of the party. The approval/permission document must be kept on-hand with the applicant during the time and at the place of the party.

- A deposit of $35 per 10 people above the initial 10 people will be required at the time of registration. All of the deposit may be returned to the party if it removes all trash from the area of the party and leaves the beach in good condition.

- No glass of any kind is permitted on the beach.

- No parking is permitted on beach side of Coldstream Drive from June 1 to Labor Day on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. Only Eaglehead residents are permitted to park in the beach lots or beach overflow lot, located along Coldstream Drive near Lake Linganore. Guest vehicles attending parties at Coldstream and Nightingale beaches will be permitted to park in the Coldstream pool parking lot in an area designated for the registered party. No vehicles are allowed directly on beaches for any reason.

- LLA Security will be responsible for monitoring the activity, i.e. parking, guest conduct. Security staff will monitor beaches with the instruction that any resident with more than 10 guests at a gathering will be asked to leave the beach area. LLA members must have membership cards with them at all times. The host of the registered party must also have a copy of the registration form with them at all time while at the beach location with his/her guests.
